

The 2023 Women's History Association of Ireland Annual Conference will take place at University College Cork on 26-27 May 2023. This year's broad theme is 'Reform, Repeal and Repression: Irish Women and the State'.

Keynote speakers:

Professor Lindsey Earner-Byrne, Professor of Modern Irish Gender History, University College Cork

Professor Máiréad Enright, Professor of Feminist Legal Studies, University of Birmingham

We welcome papers on the following suggested themes, on any time period from the medieval to the modern:

- Women in politics and local government
- Reproductive justice
- LGBTQ+ histories
- Women in international affairs
- Women's groups and activism
- Women and legislation
- Women and social policy / welfare
- Women religious
- Urban and rural life

The Women's History Association of Ireland welcomes contributors at all career stages, as well as international participants. We are also happy to accept panel proposals.

Once accepted, we will endeavour to prioritise speakers with caring responsibilities according to their scheduling needs.

Abstracts of between 250-300 words and a short bio should be sent to whaiconf23@gmail.com on or before Friday 27th January 2023.

For further information and updates about the conference, please see <https://womenshistoryassociation.com/> or follow us on Twitter: @WHAireland